idduced tending to show that a government official was connected with a gang of blackmaflers that the police believe has flourished in Honolulu for some time past, and of which Thomas Saffery, now in the custody of federal officials, is alleged to have been the ringleader, is the assertion of District Attorney S. C. Huber.

Saffery, who is charged with impersonating a federal official, is reported to have linked the name of a local government official with the purport ed blackmailers in a story he is said to have told the federal officers.

A federal official said today that the man in question visited him yesterday and flatly denied the accusations. District Attorney Hube: says he does not take much stock in Saffery's alleged stery of a "higher-up," but adds that, if such a blackmailing gang has been in existence, undoubtedly several persons were working together.

Marshal Jerome J. Smiddy has asked that any women approached or threat-ened by the alleged blackmailers report to him as, if possible, the government desires to use them as witnesses. Two women are reported to have identified Saffery as having approached them with a purported intent to black-
